

Tour: "Discover Uzbekistan"

Explore the beautiful cities on the Silk Road - Tashkent, Samarkand, Bukhara, Khiva, Shakhrisabz, Kokand, and Margilan, recognized by UNESCO as World Heritage Sites. Along with sightseeing, you can participate in masterclasses on preparing traditional Uzbek dishes, learn the history and recipes of these dishes, and understand why these traditions have been passed down through generations in the East.

Itinerary: "Discover Uzbekistan" 3 days/2 nights "Tashkent-Samarkand"

Day 1: TASHKENT-SAMARKAND

Arrival in Tashkent from Almaty. Meeting at the train station.

Excursion program "Squares and Parks of Tashkent":

Visit Independence Square, Monument of Courage, Alisher Navoi Park, and Kukeldash Madrasa (16th century).

Visit the Khast Imam Complex, where the Holy Quran (644-656 AD) is preserved: Kaffal Shashi Madrasa (16th century), Barak-Khan Madrasa (16th century).

Visit Amir Temur Square.

13:00: Lunch at the Plov Center "Besh-Kazan," known for preparing one of the best plovs in Tashkent with six varieties of Uzbek plov.

Continue the excursion: "Magic City" shopping and entertainment complex.

18:30: Transfer to the train station and departure to Samarkand by high-speed train.

Arrival in Samarkand and transfer to the hotel.

Day 2: SAMARKAND

Breakfast.

Full-day excursion in Samarkand:

Visit Gur-e-Amir Mausoleum (1404), where the famous Kok-Tash throne is located, and explore the Registan Ensemble, which includes three madrasas: Ulugh Beg Madrasa (1417-1420), Sher-Dor Madrasa (1619-1636), and Tillya-Kari Madrasa (1646-1660).

14:00: Lunch at a local restaurant.

Visit the Bibi-Khanym Mosque, the largest mosque in Asia, and the "Eternal City" complex in Samarkand City.
Overnight in Samarkand.

Day 3: SAMARKAND-TASHKENT

Breakfast.

Optional visits:

Visit a working paper factory in the village of Koni-Gil (10 km from Samarkand) to see traditional paper-making techniques.

Visit carpet workshops.

13:00: Lunch at a local cafe.

Free time to explore the bazaars and festivities at the central square.

Transfer to the train station and departure to Tashkent by high-speed train.

Arrival in Tashkent.

Transfer to the airport. End of the tour.